

Mastering Motivational Interviewing

Facilitating Change and Achieving Success

Ernie Marshall is co-founder of Change Partnership, LLC. He has worked in a variety of public and private agencies in direct practice and administrative roles for more than 25 years. He is currently a Treatment Supervisor for the State of Wisconsin and holds a Master's degree in Social Work. He is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT) and has been conducting training for more than 15 years.

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an evidence-based process that addresses ambivalence to change.

- Advance awareness of the intertwine between the technical and relational MI components
- How to use reflection strategically and directionally to deepen change talk and commitment
- Understanding of complementary theories to integrate when practicing MI to enhance effectiveness
- Self-reflection, awareness and learning for the therapist in MI interactions to enhance effectiveness
- Strategies to attend to the working relationship and staying pace with the client and their preferences

Who should attend: Those who have completed beginner and advanced training and are looking to take a deeper look at MI

When: Wednesday, May 17, 2017
8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Where: Workforce Connections,
2615 East Avenue South, La Crosse
